TUITION CONTRACT

The following section should be signed by person who is taking responsibility for payment if it is someone besides for yourself.

The current charge for one month at The Midrasha is _____ which will be paid in advance.

This fee includes: Full board and lodging, shiurim, workshops, mentoring, trips and weekly meeting with our staff to monitor progress. It does not include transportation – when needed.

We work on a sliding scale, to accommodate the financial situation of the individual applicant. Please send a detailed letter of explanation with proof of income if you require a scholarship.

Payments are non-refundable and non-cancelable.

We are closed for some Yomim Tovim and every other Shabbos.

Important

One month's paid notice must be given before student decides to leave.

There is a minimum fee for the first month even if student decides to leave before it ends.

Any damage to the premises or its contents must be paid in full.

For this purpose a deposit of $100 is required.

If a check were to bounce full payment must be made in cash immediately and any expenses paid. When paying with a non-local check please add 1.5% for exchange fee.

I agree and take full responsibility to the above conditions of payment:

PARENT COMMITMENT

Please mark the following:

- I allow my daughter to participate in all The Midrasha's organized trips and activities.
- I allow my daughter to join the Chessed Program supervised by the midrasha; this might include helping families and visiting hospitals.
- I hereby authorize the staff at Midreshet Olamot to recommend a therapist or mentor for my daughter if the need arises.

At The Midrasha we do our best to take great care over all our students at all times. However, we assume NO RESPONSIBILITY whatsoever over their physical and emotional wellbeing. Additionally, we do not take responsibility over student's belongings. All items should be clearly name-tagged, and anything left unattended becomes hefker.

Every student is required to have medical insurance during their stay at The Midrasha.

I declare that all the information given on this form is correct.

STUDENT COMMITMENT

There are a number of rules that we expect our girls to keep during their stay in the Midrasha:

1. Girls must dress according to Halachah at ALL times. This includes the ground floor in the dormitory.
2. Curfew is at 10:30pm every night and at 11 pm on Motzeh Shabbos. If you would like to come back later, please discuss with the staff in advance.
3. There is a weekly Toranut (job rotation), where every girl takes her share in keeping the Midrasha neat and tidy.
4. A basic filter is required on all Internet-capable devices. Non Jewish music may be heard on earphones only. All electronic devices are for personal use only.
5. Alcohol, cigarettes and other damaging substances are forbidden. Men are allowed in the dorm by appointment only.
6. Every girl commits to having a full time program which includes volunteering in the community once a week. Occupational guidance is available by our staff. It is required to participate in the evening program of Shiurim and workshops.
7. One month's paid notice must be given in writing if a student wishes to leave the Midrasha.
8. The staff at the Midrasha might decide at any time to ask a girl to leave if she endangers herself or others, does not follow The Midrasha's guidelines or is involved in a non suitable relationship. In such a case, the staff will provide recommendations of other suitable programs upon request.

If a student is unsure about the rules or the norms at the dorm, she is encouraged to consult with a staff member.

The first month of the Midrasha is a trial period, where the staff and student get to know each other and assess compatibility. The recommended stay at the Midrasha is 6-12 months, with the option of an extension if deemed beneficial.

I am aware that the rules in the orientation packet are inclusive to the above rules of The Midrasha, and I willingly agree to sign on all of them.
